NETWORKING BREAKFAST

THURSDAY 18 MARCH 2021

with guest speaker, Jenny Stevens ('73)

'A well lived life involves risk and I encourage you, the women of the future, to embrace fear of failure and make it your friend.'

Per Volar Sunata – Born To Fly Upwards.

Jenny Stevens firmly believes in St Margaret's motto and all young women embracing their full potential. In this first breakfast event of 2021, Jenny will talk about how she has fought her fear of failure, and how young women can live the lives they deserve to live. Jenny has grown Attune Hearing to over 65 clinics servicing the medical community across 5 states. She is an advocate for patient care and innovation, and has worked extensively on a number of fundraising committees for children with special needs. Jenny holds a Teaching Degree, a Bachelor and Master of Educational Studies, a Bachelor of Special Education and a Master of Audiological Studies from UQ.
