Networking Breakfast Wednesday 15 March 2017

with guest speaker

Penelope Twemlow ('00) CEO, Energy Skills Queensland

2016 APAC Insider CEO of the Year

2016 Telstra Queensland Business Woman For Purpose and Social Enterprise

Founder and Chair of Women in Power

Chair of the Electrical Safety Education Committee

Penelope is the CEO of Energy Skills Queensland, working in the mining, gas, electrotechnology and telecommunications industries. She is also the Founder and Chair of Women in Power, whose mission is to promote and improve the electrical and electrotechnology industry by the advancement of women within it, as well as the Chair of the Electrical Safety Education Committee and a member of the National Association of Women in Construction.

Penelope is a true leader of people and operations and has been recognised as an innovator with unsurpassed drive and passion. She continues to receive accolades for her vision and entrepreneurship, and was also a finalist in the 2016 Lord Mayor's Business Awards, the Australian Institute of Management Leadership Awards, the Brisbane Women in Business Awards and the Australian Centre for Leadership for Women Diversity Awards.

In her career, Penelope provided 10.5 years service in the Royal Australian Navy as a Warfare Officer and Military Police Investigator and also ran her own corporate consultancy, providing services to national and international clients. Her stamina, resilience and wicked sense of humour have carried her through extraordinary challenges, including the ability to reverse parallel park a 8,500 tonne armed warship.

Join us for our first exciting breakfast for 2017 and learn how this extraordinary St Margaret's Old Girl has achieved outstanding business and community results in predominantly male-dominated industries.

Proceeds from the event will be directed to the St Margaret's Foundation Endowment Fund.
