

“Something St Margaret’s” Art Competition:

capturing 125 years of St Margaret’s

In 2020, St Margaret’s Anglican Girls School celebrates 125 years of educating girls.

St Margaret’s community members are invited to capture the spirit of the St Margaret’s (past or present) in a piece of art. Selected art works will be used throughout 2020 to celebrate 125 years of educating girls.

Subject: The works must recognisably reflect ‘something St Margaret’s’ – whether it be architecture, place, people or events. For example – the panama, Middy, house colours, Mooloomburrum, the view, the Sisters, students and teachers, Eton Hall, or iconic events such as the MAYO Arts Festival, Classics in the Cathedral. Arts Spectacular, the Ponytail Project, or learning in the classroom, a sporting event etc, or a piece that captures the spirit of St Margaret’s.

Medium: Painting, Pencil Sketch, Photography, Lino Block, Watercolour, Stencil

Size: 60cm x 60cm or 30cm x 30cm

Categories:	Prizes:
Open (must have a demonstrable connection to the St Margaret’s community)	$1000 (acquisitive prize)
