Getting ahead in portraiture with

ANDY WILD

Tuesdays 3:30pm - 5:30pm -
Art Centre (V103) from 14 August
Six-week course

Who: Our tutor, Andy Wild is a gifted portrait artist based in Brisbane. Andy paint portraits for a living and receives many commissions for his quirky and detailed paintings

What: The six-week course will be split into two parts. During the first part, students will experiment with painting individual facial features in detail. In the second half of the course we look at portrait composition and painting the whole canvas.

By the end of course each student will have their own collection of unique painted samples and a small portrait, plus lots of knowledge to expand on painting at home.

When: Six-week course

Every Tuesday from 14 August

Finishes Tuesday 18 September

Open to all Secondary students in Years 7-12

Max class size only 10 students

Where: The Secondary Art Room - V103

Cost: $130 p/p
