Roberta (Bobbie) Brazil studied law at the University of Queensland and was admitted as a solicitor in the High Court of Australia in 1998. Working not only as a practicing solicitor, Bobbie's long and distinguished career has also been heavily involved and chairman of Land and Water Australia, which focuses on sustainable farming enterprises and resource management from 2001 to 2009.

She was chairman of the Australian Landcare Council from 2005 to 2008, director of Heritage Building Society, and director of Condamine Catchment Management Association, and member of 12 various organisations and also served as an adviser to the Deputy Prime Minister in her role on the Regional Women's Advisory Council

In her most recent professional appointment Bobbie served as Chancellor, University of Southern Queensland 2006-14, and Deputy Chancellor from 1995 to 2001.

In 2017 Bobbie was received an Officer in the general division of the Order of Australia (AO), in the Australia Day honours for distinguished service to tertiary education governance as Chancellor and as Deputy Chancellor of the university of Southern Queensland, service to agricultural, environmental and resource management organisations and for service to women in rural and regional areas.

Bobbie is now happily retired and enjoying life on the banks of the Condamine River with husband Lyn. The couple are extremely generous philanthropists supporting many community organisations including the AEIOU Foundation that supports children with autism, Salvation Army and Anglicare Women's Refuge. They are also keen supporters of medical research, contributing over $10 million to the Wesley Hospital Foundation and Medical Research and the University of Queensland's Queensland Brain Institute (QBI).

Join us for our first exciting breakfast for 2018!
