

THIS IS GOING TO BE INTENSE.

Calling all teen girls ready to fire up and lead like a #girlboss! We've brought together Queensland's most impressive female CEOs to develop your skills in:

Leadership | Resilience
Communication | Negotiation
Vision | Confidence

Absorb decades of real-world experience during this day-long series of interactive workshops, and hear how they've followed their passions, shaped popular brands and lead complex teams to success.

SCHOOL GROUP BOOKINGS
20% OFF TICKETS
PLUS Teacher attends for FREE!

Jellaine Dee: CEO Cherry Blooms

From weekend markets to being headhunted for product inclusion in the Golden Globes and the Oscars Gift Bags, Jellaine Dee's Brush On Fiber Lashes catapulted Cherry Blooms to global success within 12 months of launching, becoming a multi-million dollar business.

Kim Sutton: CEO Gold Coast Hospital Foundation

An absolute powerhouse leader in a challenging field, Kim's dedication to developing 'purpose led' companies has led to wonderful experiences such as a role as consultant and mentor at the FSI in London, training with the UN and visiting Nobel Laureate, Professor Mohammed Yunus.

Linda Ginger: CEO Growth Science

Linda's company arms the world's largest companies with actuarial science to successfully risk-manage their most ambitious transformational growth and innovation projects. AKA: the coolest way you can use those math, science and tech smarts to make incredible (international!) impact.

Close out QLD Women's Week with a rare opportunity to learn from Extraordinary Women leading impressive teams and achieving enormous goals and dreams.

PLUS Special guest interview with

Breanna Brock: CEO Brisbane Lions Women

With women's AFL as one of the fastest growing sports in Australia, Bree has been dedicated to changing the face of women's sport across QLD since establishing her own women's AFL team when she was just 25, the Zillmere Eagles.

Who: Teen girls in high school (Years 7-12)
When: Sunday March 11, 9am – 4pm
Where: The Precinct, Fortitude Valley

Roll up your sleeves, we've got a bit to get through:

- Opening address from FUEL Founder Tanya Meessmann
- Intimate Q&A with special guest CEO
- 3 x 75 minute workshops: every girl completes a workshop with each of the three CEOs
- Yummy Lunch supplied by Tum Fillers
- Introduction to Annie Flamsteed's 'Inspire' wellness program
- FUEL Workshop Kit including: #gameplan notebook, pen, Girl Shaped Flames pin and tote bag (valued at $50)
- Keep in touch via the Girl Shaped Flames closed Facebook Group
- 10% of ticket sales go to the Gold Coast Hospital Foundation!

BOOK THROUGH YOUR SCHOOL TO SAVE 20%

$220pp ~~$176pp~~ incl. gst, lunch and workshop kit

Only 75 places available, register your child's details through your school ASAP to secure her place

See girlshapedflames.com/ceoseries for full details of the day

Proudly Supported By

New events announced via our mailing list at girlshapedflames.com
@girlshapedflames
Girl Shaped Flames

