NOW AVAILABLE: In 2020 St Margaret's Anglican Girls School marks 125 years since its foundation. Inspired to Fly is a celebration of this major milestone. It shares the stories of past and present students, teachers, principals, parents, board and association members and, importantly, the current Sisters of the Society of the Sacred Advent to capture the spirit of the school. This commemorative volume brings together extensive archival material and a wide selection of interviews to showcase the rich spirit of St Margaret's and voices from its vibrant current school community. $55 each or $50 each when purchasing two or more copies. Purchase via flexischools (by hitting 'buy' button below) or direct from the School Supplies Shop.
