

Clubs and Activities

St Margaret's has a variety of thriving clubs and activities giving students the opportunity to broaden their horizons and to find their true interests and passions. Through these activities, young people explore and form their identity, discover and develop their strengths and talents and grow friendships that will last a lifetime.