

St Margaret's: An Australian Education Awards finalist

St Margaret's is delighted to have been named a finalist across an impressive three categories in the 2019 Australian Education Awards.

The categories are: School Principal of the Year (non-government), Primary School Principal of the Year (non-government) and Boarding School of the Year.

In 2018, St Margaret's was recognised for its excellence and leadership in innovation receiving The Educator Magazine's Innovative Schools award for academic advising. The same year, Principal Ms Ros Curtis was named in The Educator's for 2018.

The Australian Educator Awards recognise the country's best schools, principals and teachers and the winners will be announced in August.
